

THE REV. DAVID SOX

The Revd. David Sox, former General Secretary of the BSTS, has written to say that he is currently putting the finishing touches to a new book Shrines and Relics. He expresses some unhappiness that his departure back in 1981 was misunderstood: "I am extremely irritated with attitudes attributed to me that I no longer believe in the Shroud's authenticity, etc., and went over to McCrone's 'camp'" In a recent letter to the Catholic Herald he remarks "I think many are going to be surprised in ... Shrines and Relics that I am far from being the iconoclast the papers made it seem in 1981."
