

ANYONE FOR A BET?

Barbara Smoker, President of the National Secular Society, has been trying to persuade William Hill's and other bookmakers to take a bet on the outcome of the Shroud radiocarbon dating. So far, with commendable good taste, the bookmakers have declined. In frustration she has invited the Society to place a bet with her. The only suitable reply seemed to be to invoke Psalm 22: 15 and Luke 19: 24 . . .
