

Name: Jose Rogelio Castañeda Manrique, Mexico

Questions:

1. When and how did you first hear about the Shroud?

At the High School, here in Mexico. My Professor was Dr. Enrique Rivero Borrell.

2. What interested you about the Shroud?

When my Professor was sick, I was able to transmit his information for him.

3. Do you believe the Shroud is likely the burial cloth of Jesus Christ, a fake relic, or are you uncertain what to believe?

I personally think the Shroud is really the burial cloth of Jesus, but I think more investigation is necessary.

4. What, if any, actions did you take after you first encountered the Shroud (e.g., conduct research, contact people involved with it, etc.)?

Researched, read, investigated, and contacted people all over the world involved with it.

5. Have you ever seen the Shroud at any of the exhibitions? If yes, which years?

No, I didn't have the opportunity to travel to Turin.

6. What did you experience when you were in the presence of the Shroud?

N/A

7. Have you ever been involved in any scientific study of the Shroud? If yes, please describe what motivated your work and why.

Not really, just have been involved only with articles and publications.

8. Have you ever written anything about the Shroud, either factual or fictitious? If yes, please describe what motivated your work and why.

No.

9. Do you favor or believe any of the current theories on how the image got onto the cloth? If so please name the theory.

I believe in Jackson's Theory, but I can't explain it.

10. Do you feel that you have a calling or vocation to be involved somehow with the Shroud? If yes, please describe what motivated you to make a commitment to the Shroud and why.
I attend Shroud conferences here.

Please describe below any other personal reflections, experiences, insights, or thoughts about the Shroud of Turin that you would like to share.
