

Turin 2015 by Aldo Guerreschi

All Photographs ©2015 Aldo Guerreschi All Rights Reserved

The Cathedral of St. John the Baptist in Turin during the 2015 public exposition. Note the scaffolding around the dome of the Guarini Chapel, damaged by fire in 1997.

The entrance to the path leading to the Shroud exposition.

Much of the queue is covered and protected under long tents, in case of weather issues.

Volunteers stand by with wheel chairs to aid anyone requiring assistance.

Pilgrims walk toward the Cathedral and view additional information along the way.

Before entering the Cathedral, visitors view a high definition video to orient them to the Shroud

The Shroud on public display in the Cathedral of St. John the Baptist in Turin, Italy.

Pilgrims leave the cathedral after seeing the Shroud.