

THE HENRY MEUN COLLECTION

As notified in Newsletter no. 16, the late Henry Meun left a small collection of books, articles and slides relating to the Shroud, which he had built up over many years of interest in the subject. Ian Wilson recently visited Henry Meun's widow, Dorothy, at her home in Northumberland, and after studying the collection, is currently negotiating with the Jesuit fathers for the collection to be housed in the Library of their Farm Street Church at 114 Mount Street, London W1, between South Audley Street and Park Lane. It is planned for other materials to be added to this collection so that it forms the main resource centre for Shroud research in the U.K. The likely arrangement will be for those wishing to study the collection to arrange a mutually convenient visit time with the (part-time) librarian, Father John Russell. As soon as this arrangement comes into effect, members will be notified accordingly.
