

ST. LOUIS SHROUD SYMPOSIUM

This earlier announced Symposium will take place -as previously scheduled the weekend of 22 to 23 June under the title 'History, Science, Theology and the Shroud'. The venue is now to be the St. Louis Room of the Busch Center, St. Louis University, St. Louis, Missouri.

According to the programme, just received, the Saturday morning speakers will be Dr. Robert Dinagar 'An Interpretation of the C14 test results through the eyes of faith', the Revd. Kenneth Stevenson 'Multidisciplinary Study of the Shroud', and Mrs Barbara Sullivan 'The Shroud; a problem in Spatial, Historical and Art Perception'. These presentations will be followed in the afternoon by Isabel Piczek 'Is the Shroud a Painting' and 'Co-ordinating Physics and Theology'; Dr. Dan Scavone 'History of the Shroud before the 14th. Century', Brother Bruno Bonnet-Eymard 'The D'Arcis Memorandum'; Dr. John Jackson 'What is Missing?' and in the evening Dr. David Mayschak 'The Shroud and Thomistic Theology'.

On the Sunday morning the speakers will be Dr. Alan Whanger 'A Quantitative Optical Technique for analysing and authenticating the Shroud Image'; Mario Moroni 'The Coin of Pontius Pilate in the light of new archaeological finds'; and Rex Morgan 'Did the Templars take the Shroud to England?'. These papers will be followed in the afternoon by the Revd. Kim Dreisbach 'The Shroud and Healing' and 'Spy Clues'; Dr. W.S.A. Dale 'The Shroud: the Genesis of an Icon'; Dr. Philip Callahan 'The Spiritualization of Science'; and Frank Tribbe 'Mystical Visions and the Shroud'.

Those interested in attending this Symposium should as soon as possible contact Br. Joseph Marino OSH, St. Louis Abbey, 500 S. Mason Road, St. Louis, Missouri 63141-8500, U.S.A., tel. (314) 878 0294.