

THE TURIN SHROUD CENTER OF COLORADO

Founded by Dr. John Jackson, former physics professor at the US Air Force Academy, Colorado, and his Jewish-born wife Rebecca (see right), the Shroud of Turin Center of Colorado has an Information Centre and Gift Shop which is open weekdays and weekends by appointment. John and Rebecca welcome their visitors with introductory presentations explaining the known history of the Shroud, and the current state of scientific research.

For those wanting information in greater depth, eight-hour mini-courses are available through the Center's School of Shroud Studies. Further information can be obtained in writing from:

THE SHROUD CENTER OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

On Sunday, May 19th, 1996, the Shroud Center of Southern California held its Grand Opening in Huntington Beach, California. The Center plans to provide accurate information on the Shroud and promote further scientific research of the cloth. It houses an exhibit that includes life-size, back-lit colour and black & white transparencies of the Shroud made from the 1978 photographs. It also has a gift shop area where Shroud books and other materials are available. Additional information can be obtained by contacting Dr. August Accetta at:
