The Shroud of Turin: The Most Controversial Relic in History – Psychology Inspiration – July 21, 2026 – Video (27:33) – Description: “Could the Shroud of Turin really be the burial cloth of Jesus Christ, or is it one of history’s greatest medieval mysteries? For centuries, this ancient linen has fascinated believers, scientists, and skeptics alike. From mysterious bloodstains and unexplained image formation to carbon dating controversies and modern forensic analysis, the debate continues. In this video, we explore the complete story behind the Shroud of Turin, examining the evidence, the scientific studies, and the arguments from both sides. Is it an authentic relic, an incredible work of medieval craftsmanship, or something science still cannot fully explain? Watch until the end and decide for yourself.”

Considerations Regarding the Shroud Image - Dr. Juan Manuel Miñarro López - EDICES - Equipo de Investigación – July 17, 2026 - Video (57:26) – Description: “As part of the exhibition "The Man of the Shroud of Turin," held at the Mosque-Cathedral of Córdoba, Dr. Juan Manuel Miñarro López, deputy coordinator of EDICES, gave a lecture dedicated to the study and artistic representation of the Man of the Shroud. Throughout his presentation, he analyzed the historical evolution of representations of the Shroud of Turin, from the first public displays and artistic copies to the impact of Secondo Pia's photographs and the scientific research carried out during the 20th century. The lecture also addressed the characteristics of the Shroud image, the inversion of chiaroscuro, three-dimensional information, and the difficulties involved in tangibly representing an extremely faint and complex image. Juan Manuel Miñarro also presented the scientific and artistic research process he has developed over years to reconstruct the face and body of the Man of the Shroud, integrating anatomical, forensic, and artistic information, as well as data from the Sudarium of Oviedo. A journey through art, science, and applied research in the study and representation of the Shroud of Turin.”

I bugiardi della Sindone - Fede & Cultura Universitas – Video (1:09:35) – Description: “La Sindone è davvero un falso medievale oppure sono stati i suoi detrattori a raccontare una storia incompleta? In questa puntata analizziamo tre questioni decisive: perché la Sindone non può essere considerata un dipinto, quali prove storiche la collegano al lenzuolo della sepoltura di Cristo e perché la celebre datazione al Carbonio-14 del 1988 è oggi fortemente contestata da numerosi studi scientifici. Un confronto rigoroso tra dati, documenti e ricerca scientifica per distinguere la verità dalle menzogne con Fabio Quadrini.”

The Shroud of Turin: Did Science Just Reveal Proof of the Resurrection? – Strange and Mysterious World – July 14, 2026 – Video (1:01:14) – Description: “The Shroud of Turin may be the most controversial relic in history, but new claims about 3D imaging, ancient blood, Jerusalem soil, and impossible radiation have brought the mystery roaring back. In this episode, Father Damon joins us to explore whether the Shroud could be evidence of the crucifixion, the resurrection, or something even stranger involving alien DNA, interdimensional beings, and hidden Christian history. Watch until the end, because the conversation goes far beyond religion. Like, subscribe, and tell us: do you think the Shroud is real?”

Debating the Shroud of Turin – James Fodor – July 11, 2026 – Video (2:45:05) – Description: “I debate @RealSeekers about the authenticity of the Shroud of Turin. I argue that textual, artistic, and radiocarbon dating evidence all support the shroud being the product of a late medieval artisan. I also contend that defenders of authenticity lack a credible hypothesis for why God would make such a shroud or why it has the features it does.”

Can the Shroud of Turin Strengthen Faith in the Resurrection of Jesus Christ? – Guy Powell – July 10, 2026 - Video (56:24) – Description: “Can physical evidence strengthen faith? In this episode of The Backstory on the Shroud of Turin, Guy Powell interviews longtime Shroud researcher Lee Sweeney, Director of the Shroud Center in California. Lee explains why the Shroud of Turin continues to inspire young people searching for authenticity. He discusses scientific research, the image formation mystery, and how the Shroud points toward the Resurrection of Jesus Christ. The conversation explores the relationship between science and faith. Lee shares how physical evidence encourages deeper spiritual reflection without replacing faith. He also explains why the next generation wants tangible evidence that supports biblical truth. Whether you are a believer, skeptic, student, or researcher, this interview offers fresh insights into one of Christianity's greatest mysteries. It also connects with Guy Powell's book, The Only Witness, and its exploration of the history of the Shroud. The Lost History of the Shroud of Turin | Where Was It for 1,300 Years? Covenant Lens – July 9, 2026 – Video (10:00) – Description: “Have you ever wondered where the Shroud of Turin was for more than 1,300 years? In this documentary, we investigate the lost history of the Shroud of Turin, exploring one of the greatest mysteries in Christian history. Was the Shroud of Turin hidden after the resurrection of Jesus? Could it be connected to the mysterious Image of Edessa, the Byzantine Empire, and the dramatic sack of Constantinople during the Fourth Crusade? Join us as we trace the possible journey of the burial cloth of Jesus from ancient Jerusalem to its permanent home in Turin, Italy, examining the historical evidence, ancient traditions, and unanswered questions that continue to fascinate historians, archaeologists, scientists, and millions of believers around the world. This episode examines the most debated chapter in the history of the Shroud of Turin, including its possible connection to Edessa, Constantinople, medieval France, and the House of Savoy. We explore what the historical sources actually say, where the documentary record is strong, where it is uncertain, and why the missing 1,300 years remain one of the biggest challenges in determining whether the Shroud of Turin is the authentic burial cloth of Jesus Christ. Rather than sensationalizing the evidence, this documentary carefully separates historical facts from theories while presenting the strongest arguments on every side of the debate. In this episode, you'll discover: • What happened to the burial cloth after the resurrection of Jesus. • Why the first centuries of the Shroud's history remain a mystery. • The fascinating story of the Image of Edessa and its possible connection to the Shroud. • How Constantinople became home to one of Christianity's most mysterious relics. • What happened during the Fourth Crusade and why it changed history forever. • How the Shroud suddenly appeared in medieval France. • The devastating fire that nearly destroyed the relic. • How the Shroud eventually arrived in Turin, Italy. • Which historical claims are supported by evidence—and which remain disputed. This documentary is part of our ongoing Shroud of Turin Documentary Series, where we investigate every aspect of this extraordinary relic through the lenses of history, archaeology, forensic science, biblical studies, and modern scientific research.”

F&M Today! On the Shroud of Turin with Jim Bertrand – Faith and Marriage – July 9, 2026 – Video (28:04) – Description: “After centuries of scientific testing and debate, the Shroud of Turin remains one of the most intriguing religious artifacts in the world for both skeptics, believers, researchers, and theologians. The Shroud of Turin is believed to be the burial cloth they used for Jesus when they took him down from the cross after the crucifixion. Tonight we are blessed to have Jim Bertrand, an expert on the Shroud, as our speaker. Jim taught high school science for 39 years and has a Master’s Degree in Education. Now retired from the classroom, he has given over 200 presentations on this topic across 47 dioceses and 29 states in the past 10 years. His mission is to provide factual information on the Shroud of Turin.

Can the Bible Answer Every Objection to the Shroud of Turin? – Guy Powell – July 6, 2026 – Video (59:32) – Description: “Can the Shroud of Turin withstand the toughest biblical objections? In this thought-provoking episode of The Backstory on the Shroud of Turin, Guy Powell welcomes theologian and Christian apologist Tom Dallis for an engaging discussion about twelve of the most common scriptural challenges raised against the Shroud. Drawing from the Old and New Testaments, Tom explains how the Gospel accounts of the burial of Jesus Christ, Jewish burial customs, and the original biblical languages provide a stronger theological foundation for the Shroud than many people realize. The conversation explores questions surrounding the burial cloths, Joseph of Arimathea, Isaiah's prophecies, the Day of Atonement, and the High Priest's linen garments, revealing remarkable connections between Scripture and the Resurrection. Rather than relying on tradition alone, Tom encourages viewers to examine the biblical evidence in its historical and cultural context. Whether you are a lifelong believer, a skeptic, or simply curious about one of Christianity's greatest mysteries, this episode offers thoughtful insights that complement Guy Powell's book, The Only Witness: A History of the Shroud of Turin. Per Avvenire la Sindone è un falso! - Fede & Cultura Universitas – July 2, 2026 – Video (1:15:31) – Description: “Per anni ci hanno ripetuto che la Sindone era un falso medievale e che il Memoriale di Pierre d’Arcis aveva chiuso la questione una volta per tutte. Persino Avvenire ha rilanciato questa tesi. Ma è davvero così? In questa intervista in diretta il sindonologo Fabio Quadrini smonta, documenti alla mano, una delle narrazioni più diffuse sulla Sindone: un pittore senza nome, una confessione mai trovata, atti scomparsi e un Papa che non dichiarò mai falso il Telo di Torino. Dopo seicento anni, la domanda è ancora aperta: la Sindone è davvero un falso... o è il suo mistero che continua a mettere in crisi le certezze di molti?”

Artifact Facts - Investigating The Burial Cloth Of Jesus! – Evidence 4 Faith – July 1, 2026 – Video (31:49) – Description: “In last week’s episode, we introduced what is the most studied artifact of all time – the Shroud of Turin, the supposed burial cloth of Jesus. Today we dive into a deep investigation to determine whether this linen is indeed authentic, or if it is simply a beautiful piece of medieval artwork as some believe. Michael will investigate by using eight different ways that this artifact has been scientifically tested. What will the evidence show? Tune in to see if we can solve this intriguing mystery behind the Shroud of Turin.”

TURIN SHROUD IS REAL | Unorthodox Guy Puts up a Million Buck and Proves it! – Ancient Civilization – Video (1:11:46) – Description: “Is the world’s most controversial relic finally vindicated? In this explosive episode, we dive deep into the mystery of the Shroud of Turin—the ancient linen cloth bearing the faint image of a crucified man that many believe to be the burial shroud of Jesus Christ. For decades, scientists, skeptics, theologians, and historians have battled over its authenticity. Carbon dating in 1988 declared it medieval. Case closed... or was it? Now, an unorthodox researcher steps forward with a bold move—putting up a $1 million challenge, claiming modern science can prove the Shroud is far older than previously thought. New textile analysis, contamination theories, radiation hypotheses, and high-resolution imaging are back in the spotlight. Could the original carbon dating have been flawed? Was the sample taken from a repaired medieval patch? And if cutting-edge testing is allowed, would the results shake the foundations of history? We break down the science, the skepticism, the theology, and the massive implications. If the Shroud is authentic, it rewrites more than religious belief—it challenges mainstream archaeology, forensic science, and historical consensus. [The HIDDEN history of the SHROUD of Turin \(Shroud of Christ\) \[EN\] \[PART 1&2\]](#) - HolyClic – Jan 21, 2026 – Video (19:00) – Description: “The Shroud of Turin (or Holy Shroud) has fascinated people for centuries. Officially discovered in the 14th century in Lirey, France, it may actually date back to the year 33 in Jerusalem... But what does history truly reveal? And what do several historical documents, such as Theodore Angelus's letter of 1205 or the Chronicle of Morea, tell us? You'll find out in this fascinating video! This video is divided into two parts: 1. Part 1: From 1456 to the present day. Several events are discussed, including the fire in Chambéry in 1532, which nearly destroyed the Shroud. 2. Part 2: From 33 to 1456. An important historical document, recently discovered, helps to shed light on the great mystery of the Shroud's appearance in Lirey. This video discusses, in particular, the Achaean clan with the Chronicle of Morea, but also Athens with the letter of Theodore Angelus, Constantinople with the Chronicle of Skylitzes, Edessa...”

Artifact Facts - The Shroud Of Turin - The Image (Part 1) – Evidence 4 Faith – June 24, 2026 – Video (17:53) – Description: “The Shroud of Turin – the most intensively studied artifact of all time. This ancient linen cloth depicts the image of a man who we can visibly see was beaten, bore a crown of thorns, scourged, stabbed, and clearly crucified Roman style. Could this have possibly been the burial cloth of Jesus? Michael was skeptical and doubted the authenticity for years, but has further studying of the artifact changed his mind? Tune in as we study the final artifact in this series in three-part episodes.”

Shroud of Turin Under Siege: How World War II and the 1997 Fire Nearly Destroyed It - JP2 Catholic Radio - June 24, 2026 – Video (31:18) – Description: “Surgeon and Shroud researcher Dr. John Sottosanti examines two dramatic moments in history when the Shroud of Turin faced possible destruction—first during the Nazi threat of World War II and later during the catastrophic fire of 1997 that engulfed the Guarini Chapel in Turin. "I had inhuman strength." Those were the words of Fireman Mario Trimitori, who swung a 9-pound sledgehammer for 30 minutes through four layers of bulletproof glass to save the Shroud on Good Friday, 1997. When Hitler began collecting Christian relics across Europe, Vatican officials—including future Pope Paul VI—orchestrated a secret midnight train operation to hide the Shroud in the remote Abbey of Montevergine. It stayed concealed under an altar for eight years. Fifty-one years later, the cathedral that housed it caught fire, reaching temperatures of 1,000°F. Hosted by retired police chief Eddie Madueño, this episode of the JP2 Morning Crew Shroud Series reveals the heroic—sometimes miraculous—efforts to protect what many believe is the actual burial cloth of Jesus Christ. 📺 CHAPTERS 00:00 – TRAILER: Nazis, Fire & the Shroud 00:44 – Intro & Opening Prayer 04:14 – What Is the Shroud of Turin? Relic, Hoax, or Holy Evidence? The Shroud of Turin Under Cross Examination - Cold-Case Christianity - J. Warner & Jimmy Wallace – June 20, 2026 – Video (1:25:48) – Description: “Is the Shroud of Turin a sacred relic, a clever medieval fake, or just misunderstood evidence? 🤔 In this second episode on the Shroud of Turin, cold-case homicide detective and Christian apologist J. Warner Wallace puts the Shroud under cross examination, using the same investigative techniques he’s used on real cases—chain of custody, historical records, and the silence of the earliest Christians. 🕒 You’ll learn: • Why centuries of silence about the shroud matter 🕒 • How chain of custody works in real trials 🕒 • What the first Christians actually used to argue for the resurrection ☩ • Why Christianity does not rise or fall on any single artifact 🙏”

Evidence Log 10 The Limits of Proof 1080p caption – Anna Keller – June 16, 2026 – Video (7:44) – Description: “The physical evidence for the Shroud of Turin is genuinely anomalous. The textile is first-century Levantine. The blood is real. The image cannot be replicated. The WAXS dating is incompatible with a medieval origin by a factor of more than ten. But not every argument made in favor of the Shroud's authenticity is equally strong. Evidence Log 10 does something advocates on both sides of this debate rarely do — it draws the line between what the physical evidence actually establishes and where the argument becomes circular or leaves science behind entirely. The iconographic argument. The God of the gaps. The Pray Codex and the first definitive historical reference. Where the chain of custody holds and where it does not. The chain of custody is only as strong as its weakest link. The forensic case for the Shroud is strong enough to stand without the arguments that cannot bear the weight. This log makes that case honestly.”

The Shroud of Turin's Biggest Defense Just Collapsed – The Hidden Tablet – June 17, 2026 – Video (11:55) – Description: “For decades, critics of the Shroud of Turin's medieval carbon date argued that laboratories tested a repaired corner or material unrepresentative of the main cloth. A study published on April 18, 2026 examined two archived fragments from the University of Arizona's 1988 sample. The fibers were consistent with published descriptions of the main textile, and researchers reported no signs of repair or significant contamination capable of explaining away the date. The study was not a new carbon test, and its samples were small, but it directly challenges the Shroud's most persistent defense. Sources include the 2026 npj Heritage Science textile analysis, the original 1989 Nature radiocarbon report, and the historical research listed in the release source notes.”

The Shroud of Turin: The Image Science Can't Explain – Brother Aurelian – June 15, 2026 – Video (20:08) – Description: “In the Royal Chapel of the Cathedral of Saint John the Baptist, in Turin, Italy, lies a single piece of linen. Four metres long. Sepia-stained with the faint full-length image of a crucified man, scourged and pierced and crowned with thorns. Rust-colored material at every wound site, confirmed by laboratory testing to be human blood. The Catholic Church does not officially teach that this cloth is the burial shroud of Jesus Christ. It does not officially teach that it is not, either. In this video, we trace the Shroud of Turin through every major step of its seven-hundred-year history. From its first documented appearance in the small French village of Lirey in thirteen fifty-four. Through the dramatic Chambéry chapel fire of fifteen thirty-two and the photographic-negative reveal by Italian amateur Secondo Pia in eighteen ninety-eight. Through the historic nineteen-seventy-eight STURP investigation by thirty American scientists. Through the famous nineteen-eighty-eight radiocarbon dating that declared it a medieval forgery — and the much less famous two-thousand-five vanillin paper by Raymond Rogers that reopened the entire question. And finally through the brand-new two-thousand-twenty-two wide-angle X-ray scattering analysis that places the linen at around two thousand years old. It is, by every reasonable measure, the single most studied and scientifically tested religious relic in human history. And after seven hundred years of investigation, the world still cannot agree on what it actually is. Every claim in this video is sourced. Does the Shroud of Turin Prove Jesus? | Ask Dr. E - Michael Easley inContext – June 11, 2026 – Video (9:17) – Description: “In this episode, Dr. E tackles one of Christianity's most debated artifacts: the Shroud of Turin. While many believers see the shroud as compelling evidence for Christ's crucifixion and resurrection, Dr. Easley explains why he remains unconvinced that it is Jesus' actual burial cloth. Drawing from biblical theology, church history, archaeology, and first-century Jewish burial practices, Dr. Easley discusses why faith ultimately rests on Scripture—not relics. He explores the dangers of elevating artifacts above God's Word, addresses common arguments for the shroud's authenticity, and explains why the greatest obstacle to belief is not a lack of evidence. Did John Calvin Get the Shroud of Turin Wrong? What Modern Evidence Reveals – Guy Powell – June 9, 2026 – Video (1:01:37) – Description: “In this fascinating episode of The Backstory on the Shroud of Turin, Guy Powell interviews author, apologist, and Shroud researcher Doug Powell. They explore Calvin’s famous objections to the Shroud and compare them with modern historical, archaeological, and scientific discoveries. Doug explains why Calvin rejected the Shroud of Turin in the 1500s. He examines questions about relics, Jewish burial practices, iconography, and the image on the cloth. The discussion reveals how limited historical information shaped Calvin’s conclusions. The conversation also explores the Sudarium of Oviedo, ancient burial customs, the Resurrection, and how modern research challenges several of Calvin’s assumptions. Whether you are a believer, skeptic, historian, or student of theology, this episode provides valuable insights into one of Christianity’s most debated artifacts.”

Shroud of Turin: The X-Ray Evidence That Changes Everything — Evidence Log 09 – Anna Keller – June 9, 2026 - Video (6:22) – Description: “The 1988 carbon dating said the Shroud of Turin was medieval. But what does an entirely independent physical measurement say — one that has nothing to do with carbon isotopes? In 2022, researchers at the University of Padua applied wide-angle X-ray scattering to a sample of the Shroud, measuring the structural degradation of cellulose at the molecular level. The result was fully compatible with a two-thousand-year-old linen. The medieval hypothesis was excluded by a factor of more than ten. Evidence Log 09 examines the WAXS study, the mechanical and chemical dating methods developed at Padua, what the aging data says about the Shroud's possible historical path, and a conservation finding that matters regardless of which side of the dating debate you stand on. Three laboratories. One result. Medieval origin, case closed. But what happens when you look at the actual numbers? Evidence Log 08 examines the raw data behind the 1988 result, two peer-reviewed statistical analyses that challenge the confidence interval, the sample location controversy, and the on-record statement made by the man who coordinated the dating nearly thirty years later. It also examines a fourth difficulty with the medieval forgery hypothesis that has received almost no attention — what first-century Jewish burial law for violent death requires, what the Gospel accounts record about the specific circumstances of the burial, and what any medieval forger would have needed to know to replicate both correctly. The evidence does not support that forger. Anna Keller is an investigative forensic journalist. She follows the chain of custody wherever it leads. The Shroud of Turin is one of the most controversial and mysterious religious relics in history. For believers, it is the authentic burial cloth of Jesus Christ — bearing the miraculous image of his tortured body after the Crucifixion. For scientists, the mystery is far from solved. When photographer Secondo Pia captured the shroud on film in 1898, he made a shocking discovery: the image appeared far more detailed in photographic negative, revealing the face and body of a crucified man. Since then, historians, archaeologists and researchers have tried to uncover the truth. Carbon-14 dating suggests the cloth dates back to the Middle Ages. Yet no one has ever fully explained how the image itself was created. Was the Shroud of Turin a medieval masterpiece? A miraculous relic? Or one of history's greatest unsolved mysteries? Through expert investigations, scientific analysis and historical research, this documentary explores the fascinating debate surrounding the world's most famous relic.”

The Sudarium of Oviedo: Did It Cover the Face of Jesus Christ? – Arcana Fides – June 1, 2026
– Video (12:17) – Description: “What if another ancient cloth connected to Jesus Christ has been hiding in Spain for centuries?”

Most people know about the Shroud of Turin... but far fewer have heard of the Sudarium of Oviedo, a bloodstained face cloth believed by some to have covered the head of Jesus after the crucifixion. Unlike the Shroud, the Sudarium contains no visible image. It only contains bloodstains. Yet researchers claim the wounds and stain patterns may match the same face seen on the Shroud of Turin. In this video, we explore:

- the history of the Sudarium of Oviedo
- its journey from Jerusalem to Spain
- the scientific analysis of the bloodstains
- the possible forensic connection to the Shroud of Turin
- skeptical arguments against authenticity
- why this mysterious relic continues to fascinate historians, scientists, and believers alike.

Could this cloth really be connected to the burial of Jesus Christ... or is it one of history's greatest religious mysteries? Chapters: 00:00 – The Forgotten Cloth Connected to Jesus? Sam Shamoun Reacts the Shroud of Turin - More Sam Shamoun – June 1, 2026 – Video (17:16) – Description: “What is the Shroud of Turin—and could it be real evidence pointing to the resurrection of Jesus Christ? In this powerful segment, Sam Shamoun reacts to arguments and testimonies surrounding the authenticity of the Shroud of Turin, the burial cloth many believe wrapped the body of Jesus after His crucifixion. Sam Shamoun discusses the evidence presented by Father Andrew Dalton, John Bergsma, Mike Licona, and researchers who have studied the Shroud of Turin in depth. The discussion focuses on why many Christians believe the Shroud is not a medieval hoax, but an ancient artifact connected to the burial, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. Sam Shamoun highlights the image on the Shroud, the burial cloth, the empty tomb, the mystery of how the image was formed, the role of divine light, and why the Shroud continues to shake unbelievers, Protestants, Catholics, and skeptics alike. He also addresses the famous carbon dating objection and explains why some believe the medieval dating came from a repaired section of the cloth rather than the original Shroud. The conversation becomes even more powerful when Sam Shamoun shares the testimony involving Barry Schwartz, a Jewish agnostic and one of the leading experts on the Shroud of Turin, who believed the Shroud was probably authentic and admitted that the resurrection may be the best explanation for the image. Sam Shamoun then reflects on the blood evidence, bilirubin, the suffering of Jesus on the cross, and how the Shroud points back to the reality of Christ's crucifixion, death, and resurrection. This is a moving reminder that Jesus Christ truly suffered, truly died, and truly rose from the dead. The Shroud of Turin is not merely an artifact—it points us back to the Gospel, the cross, the empty tomb, and the living Lord Jesus Christ. 🕒

A bearded man. Tall. With wounds at his wrists, his feet, his side — wounds that match, with unsettling precision, the account of the crucifixion of Jesus of Nazareth. Scientists have dated it to the Middle Ages. Other scientists say the dating was wrong. The image cannot be explained. The blood cannot be dismissed. And millions of people have stood before it and wept. We uncover: ● The shocking 1898 photograph that turned a relic into a scientific enigma. ● How NASA's 3D imaging technology revealed a perfect hologram encoded in the cloth. ● The forensic proof of real human blood, marking a death by extreme trauma. ● The impossible discovery that the image is only 200 nanometers deep—1/500th the width of a hair. ● The paradox of the bloodstains: why they were on the cloth before the image was formed. ● The controversial 1988 carbon dating test and the anomaly everyone ignored. This is not a story of faith versus reason, but of physical evidence that defies both.”

The Shroud of Turin is the Sign Of Jonah - Good Shepherd Films and Wider Perspective Productions – May 27, 2026 – Video (13:59) – Description: “Good News first. Our channel has been demonetized. That means everyone gets to watch our videos without ads. . "A greater than Jonah is here" is a statement made by Jesus in Matthew 12:41 indicating his superiority to the prophet Jonah. Jesus argues that while the people of Nineveh repented, his audience is rejecting someone far greater—JESUS -the Son of Man—who brings a message of salvation, perfect obedience, and ultimate redemption Jesus said, Mathew 18:3 "Assuredly I say to you unless you are CONVERTED and become as little children you will never enter the Kingdom of Heaven" The best example of this type of CONVERSION is in the Ebenezer Scrooge film, A Christmas Carol. When Scrooge shouts out. "I feel light as a feather and as giddy as a child!" REPENTING OF SINS and making a resolve to change IS HOW WE RECEIVE THIS CONVERSION, To receive a spirit of love, joy and freedom People say all you have to do is believe Jesus is Gods Son & died for our sins and we will be granted entry into Heaven, NO it is not that simple Read this verse for more clarity. Jesus said in Matthew 12:33 “Either make the fruit good and the tree good, or else make the fruit bad and the tree bad.” For a tree is known by its fruit, all the trees that do not bear good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire" We do not want to be a tree with ornaments of contempt, dishonesty and resentment when we face judgement unless we want to be tossed into a fire and burned. In the AA 4th step program we make a searching and fearless moral inventory of ourselves and then confess to God the nature of our wrongs. We are posting more detailed info on our community page in regards to this. I wrote and published a book on this subject. Repentance was the cornerstone of the teachings of Jesus. No less than 19 times he spoke of repentance in the Gospel accounts and 7 times in the Book Of Revelation. The Lord God commanded Jonah to go to Nineveh with a repentance warning message, Jesus told us to repent, we are doing the same. The "Sign of Jonah" is a phrase used by Jesus in the New Testament to refer to Jonah's time in the belly of a whale as a foreshadowing of the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus. The number of the Resurrection is 3 The numerical sign of Jonah.

"This wicked generation asks for a Sign but the only Sign that will be given is the Sign of Jonah" The word Sign means pointer, marker, proof, evidence and assurance The Shroud of Turin is that sign, the pointer, the marker, the proof, evidence and assurance of the crucifixion, death and resurrection, the Sign that points to the true savior, A MODERN DAY SIGN OF JONAH. The sign of prophet Jonah was a warning sign to repent or the city of Nineveh would be destroyed The Shroud is also a warning sign to repent before the JUDGEMENT OF THE ENTIRE EARTH, NOT JUST ONE CITY. Isaiah 14:23 "I will sweep it with the broom of destruction" Isaiah 11:11 "I will set my hand again a 2nd time to recover the remnant of my people" For all we know that could begin later on tonight. That is why there is a sense of urgency and seriousness to repent, to make a resolve to change while there is still time left.. More than anything else the Sign of Jonah was a warning MESSAGE to make a resolve to change or disaster would come upon the city of Nineveh, The same scenario is happening again in this time. The Sign of Jonah is not just a fish story . It is a story about MASS REPENTANCE and SALVATION. THE SHROUD is also a warning message to make a resolve to change repent before the judgement of the Earth and coming of God's New Kingdom That is why Jesus said. "Repent for the kingdom of Heaven is at hand" Meaning it is coming soon."

Podcast: Questions - Week 25: What if the Shroud is Genuine? Awake Us Now – May 3, 2026 – Audio (25:02) – Description: "This is a controversial topic. The Shroud of Turin is the most studied, most scientifically tested artifact in history. It has been subjected to literally hundreds of thousands of hours of intensive study by people of multiple disciplines. What do we know for certain.... The Foundation: 1 Corinthians 15:1-5 "Now, brothers and sisters, I want to remind you of the gospel I preached to you, which you received and on which you have taken your stand. By this gospel you are saved, if you hold firmly to the word I preached to you. Otherwise, you have believed in vain. For what I received I passed on to you as of first importance: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, and then to the Twelve. After that, he appeared to more than five hundred of the brothers and sisters at the same time, most of whom are still living, though some have fallen asleep. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles, and last of all he appeared to me also, as to one abnormally born." Paul is calling us to anchor our faith in the Biblical foundation: Heed the Prophetic Scripture - God will send the Messiah, and here's how to recognize Him, and then the Messiah comes as Jesus Eyewitness Testimony - from the early believers who saw Jesus post-resurrection and who were willing to share that news at the risk of their lives Holy Spirit's Witness - Jesus said the Holy Spirit leads us to understand who He is. Historical Confirmation - from ancient authors who were not believers in Jesus, who were not christian, but who freely confessed the fundamentals of the christian faith: that there was Jesus, that He did remarkable things, that He was crucified by Pontius Pilate, that His tomb was empty on the third day, that His followers spread rapidly, that many were brought to faith in a short time, and that the christians were willing to die for what they believed in. 50 years later: We still cannot duplicate the image - it has stumped scientists. The physics contradicts the chemistry and the chemistry contradicts the physics. The Contradictions: Depth - why is this just a microscopic image - why didn't it seep through the cloth Contact - chemical reactions on the Shroud happened outside the area that was touching the body. Heat - If this image was produced by a burst of energy - it should have burned through the cloth and it did not.. Is it the real thing? Pastor says he doesn't know. He's read from both sides, he's not certain.... But he says there are two possibilities: 1 Inexplicable Art 2 Incomparable

Artifact Is this possibly the burial shroud of Jesus? - Pastor says, "Yes, it could well be, and also there's evidence that maybe may not be." Pastor goes on to say that he wouldn't be surprised if it is The burial Shroud of Jesus. He goes on to explain why it would not surprise him. We are living in amazing day and an amazing age that has seen gigantic discoveries: Scriptural - Dead Sea Scrolls - confirmed the present day scriptures Archaeological - discoveries over the last 70 years confirm biblical locations, items, etc Scientific - evidence is overwhelming in support of a brilliant Creator Prophetic - fulfilled in the last 70 years - 1948 the nation of Israel was born. 1967 the Jewish people reoccupied the city of Jerusalem. These are things that ought to call all people into examining what the Bible says and what the gospel of Jesus says because the evidence for the Bible's truth is incredibly powerful. If the Shroud is genuine - then God took the first selfie!! And we are looking into the face of the Lord Jesus! The Shroud of Turin's image reminds us of the Scripture's truth: Christ died for our sins He was buried He rose on the third day He appeared to His disciples Whether the Shroud of Turin is real or not we know that God has broken into our world in the person of Jesus and because He is risen, our lives are not the same. He is real and He is coming back. He calls us to receive Him now - to turn from our old ways and turn to the Gospel message of His love for us in Christ."

The Shroud of Turin: Science, Faith & the "Fifth Gospel" – Raymond Arroyo – April 29, 2026 – Video (44:28) – Description: "On this week's Arroyo Grande, we begin a special two-part series on one of Christianity's greatest mysteries - the Shroud of Turin. A 14-foot linen cloth believed by many to be the burial shroud of Jesus, it has survived centuries of scrutiny, skepticism, and scientific testing. But what exactly are we looking at? Is it a medieval forgery... or something far more extraordinary? Joined by biblical scholar Father Andrew Dalton and researcher Bill Lauto, Raymond explores what modern science can - and cannot - explain. From the mysterious image formation that defies reproduction, to forensic details of crucifixion preserved in the blood patterns, the evidence raises profound questions about history, faith, and the limits of scientific understanding. In Part 1, the conversation dives into the physical properties of the cloth, the shocking precision of the image, and why even skeptics have struggled to explain how it was created. The closer you look, the more elusive the answers become - and the deeper the mystery grows. Next week in Part 2: new microscopic findings, X-ray analysis, and what the latest research may reveal about the moment captured on the cloth."

What's the answer - Is the Shroud of Turin genuine? - Awake Us Now – April 26, 2026 – Video (27:04) – Description: "The Shroud of Turin is a relic housed in the cathedral in Turin Italy and claimed to be the burial cloth of Christ. The Gospels give us some details: - Matthew 27:59-60 ESV "And Joseph (of Arimathea) took the body and wrapped it in a clean linen shroud and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had cut in the rock. And he rolled a great stone to the entrance of the tomb and went away.” - Mark 15:46 ESV “And Joseph bought a linen shroud, and taking Him (Jesus) down, wrapped Him in the linen shroud and laid Him in a tomb that had been cut out of the rock. And he rolled a stone against the entrance of the tomb.” - Luke 23:53 ESV “Then he (Joseph) took it down and wrapped it in a linen shroud and laid Him in a tomb cut in stone, where no one had ever yet been laid.” - John 19:40 ESV “So they (Joseph of Arimathea and Nicodemus) took the body of Jesus and bound it in linen cloths with the spices, as is the burial custom of Jews.” Shroud of Turin - A linen shroud approximately 14 feet long, 3 1/2 feet wide. - Pastor shares a picture of the shroud. It’s very hard to discern what shows on the shroud. - But on May 28, 1898 Secondo Pia (1855 - 1941) received permission to take a picture of the shroud. The photographic negative ended up being an image of a man’s brutalized face. He said “I think I may have been the first person in centuries to see the face of Jesus!” - In the following years many others have used developing technologies in photography to take photos of the shroud. - Pastor shares his pictures and how it shows the person has been crucified and brutally whipped with over 300 lacerations. - Many people have asked the last 100+ years if this is indeed Jesus. Shroud of Turin Research Project (STURP) a group came to examine and test the Shroud - 1978 - 40 U.S. scientists, multiple institutions and laboratories. - Went to Turin Italy - 5 days, 122 hours, to study the shroud, fully expected to find a forgery - Tests- large variety of tests and equipment - And in the following years 1978-1981 they spent an additional 100,000 - 150,000 hours of intensive study on the results of their testing. And made their final report in 1981. 1981 STURP Report Findings - Image is on the top surface of linen fibers. The image is only .2 - .7 microns - that’s several hundred times thinner than a human hair) - Identity - it is the image of a scourged and crucified man. Approx 5’ 11” tall around 178 lbs. - Origin - No evidence of paint of pigment - Bloodstains were found of hemoglobin + serum albumin - which is evidence of a person having been horrifically tortured. - 3D data - used a VP8 Image Analyzer (developed for the space program) and discovered that what is recorded on the shroud had 3 dimensional properties. - Mechanism - how was it produced - unknown For an insider’s view of the study “Report on the Shroud of Turin” published in 1983 by John Herbert Heller. (A member of the Shroud team). The book caused many questions to start emerging. Pastor shares an article “On the Physical Death of Jesus Christ” from the JAMA Journal of the American Medical Association from March 21, 1986, Volume 256 and the impact that article had on him. Pastor goes further into the continued testing over the years. Here are the latest results: - 2013 - (FTIR) Fourier Transform Infrared Spectroscopy indicated the Shroud was 2,000 years old - 2013 - Raman Spectroscopy also reported the Shroud to be 2,000 years old - 2022 - (WAXS) Wide-Angle X-Ray Scattering was used and it showed the Shroud to be 2,000 years old. Research continues: Physicist Paolo di Lazzaro and team at ENEA Labs, after 5 years and hundred of failed attempts to reproduce an image like the shroud, concluded that to make the imprint on the Shroud it would take 34 trillion watts of radiant energy for 1/40 billionths of a second. (An energy level greater than all the energy plants in the world combined) Final Observations: - 2000 year old Linen Shroud - Crown of Thorns - Abrasions on shoulders from carrying Crossbeam - Nailed to the cross, not tied - Has a side wound, no broken bones - Rushed burial - as body was not washed - Brief entombment Could this be the burial shroud of Jesus? Pastor shares an interesting quote from the book by Heller and then shares that he believes it is certainly possible that this is the burial shroud of Jesus!”

Shroud Wars: Panel of Shroud Experts on Lee Enochs Radio Show – Real Seekers – May 23, 2026 – Video (3:11:16) – Description: “Shroud expert and friend of the channel, Otangelo

Grasso, has recently been convincing the conservative political radio show host Lee Enochs about some of the merits of the Shroud of Turin. As a Shroud skeptic, Lee is set to debate Jeremiah Johnston with Dr. Sean McDowell moderating in early July and as such, he wanted to hear some of the main argument from some of the Pro-Shroud experts. Among yours truly, I'm joined by Teddi Pappas, Otangelo Grasso, Bob Rucker and Larry Stalley (among others). At some point the show gets a bit heated, but I think some good progress was made and Lee, as a fellow brother in Christ interested in God's truth, agreed that he needed to do further research on the Shroud evidence before his debate with Jeremiah; thus, while touch and go there at certain points, it was time well served as far as I can tell :) RSM Blog =

Can Legal Evidence Prove the Shroud of Turin Is Authentic? – Guy Powell – May 21, 2026 –

Video (52:59) – Description: “Could the Shroud of Turin stand up in a court of law? In this fascinating episode of The Backstory on the Shroud of Turin, Guy Powell interviews former judge and longtime Shroud researcher David Belz. David explains how legal reasoning, evidence standards, and human bias shape the debate around the Shroud of Turin. He compares scientific testing, courtroom evidence, and theology to explore whether the cloth could truly be connected to Jesus Christ and the Resurrection. The discussion covers confirmation bias, circumstantial evidence, forensic blood analysis, bilirubin findings, and the relationship between the Shroud and the Gospel accounts. David also explains why the Shroud creates endless curiosity among believers and skeptics alike. This episode connects faith, science, and law in a powerful discussion inspired by The Only Witness. May 14, 2026 – Video (31:46) – Description: “A 14th-century French knight of impeccable reputation claimed to have the actual burial cloth of Jesus Christ. When asked where he got it, Geoffrey de Charny would only say: “To me, it was freely given.” A bishop accused him of fraud. The Pope silenced the bishop. An artist supposedly confessed to painting it — but no one ever recorded his name. 700 years later, scientists proved it wasn't painted at all. So who's telling the truth? The knight who staked his legendary honor on it? The bishop who called it a “cunningly painted” forgery? Or the Pope who imposed “perpetual silence” on the fraud accusations? Dr. John Sottosanti walks through the complete historical record: Geoffrey de Charny's commendation by Pope Clement VI, his role as standard bearer to the King of France, the construction of the church at Lirey, the Bishop d'Arcis Memorandum, and the papal bulls that shaped 700 years of controversy. ⚡ SKIP TO: 00:00 for the 2:42 evidence trailer, or jump to 05:24 to start the full historical investigation. 📺 CHAPTERS 00:00 – TRAILER: The Knight Who Had Jesus' Burial Cloth 02:42 – Opening & Prayer 05:24 – What Is the Shroud of Turin? Warner Wallace recently posted a video on his YouTube channel outlining the case for the Shroud as he sees it. In the end, he concludes that using court room standards of evidence that it is most likely a medieval fraud. Criminal defense attorney Teddi Pappas begs to differ and we will discuss the reasons why as we review Wallace's case.”
