TRIP TO TURIN TO SEE THE SHROUD 22ND APRIL-26TH APRIL, 2010. I am in the process of finding out what it would cost per person to go to Turin to see the Shroud next year when it is being exposed. To make it worthwhile five days would be necessary, one to get there, one to get back and three full days there. Turin is a beautiful city and there's plenty to see there. Mark Guscini has kindly offered to be our guide which is wonderful. I am in touch with a travel agency that organises pilgrimages to Lourdes and they tell me that to keep costs as low as possible we would need to have 30 people wanting to go. It has been impossible to get a costing now because the hotels in Turin have not yet fixed their prices for next year. If anyone would be interested in going and getting the costs for the trip please write to me at
