The Shroud is far older than reported, as when it was carbon dated, they used a repaired part of the cloth rather than the original fabric, he said. "All the evidence seems to suggest," he added, "that this was the burial cloth of the historical Jesus of Nazareth," and that some type of energy burst (perhaps ultra-violet light) produced the image on the cloth...”

ANDREW SILVERMAN joins us to discuss his latest publication "A Burst of Conscious Light." He will be discussing his application of quantum physics in analyzing the Shroud. A shroud is documented in the Gospels, but is the Shroud the same one Joseph of Arimathea used to wrap the body of Jesus? What about the rumors that it was painted by Leonardo? There are minute details that must be brought into the discussion, and we will cover them. Perhaps, some of Jesus' parables lend credence to the Shroud's authenticity. During an era when science and religion are exclusive of each other, perhaps, the Shroud proves that science and religion can be the same. We will get into the evidence that the Shroud is evidence of a near death experience and reincarnation. You will not want to miss this show.”
